Here Comes the Sun: New Vitamin D Recommendations

Henry Crevensten, MD
Assistant Clinical Professor, Division of Hospital Medicine
University of California, San Francisco

Learning Objectives:
1. Understand new guidelines for Vitamin D supplementation
2. Understand evidence for and against Vitamin D supplementation

Delirium, Dementia, Drugs, and Data

R.Ron Finley, B.S. Pharm., R.Ph, CGP
Clinical Pharmacist, UCSF Memory and Aging Center Lecturer (Emeritus) UCSF,
Department of Clinical Pharmacy Assistant Clinical Professor, UCSF School of Pharmacy

Learning Objectives:
1. Define the role for benzodiazepines and for first generation antipsychotics, and second generation antipsychotics in the management of delirium in a 67-year-old patient.
2. Name three common side effects for each of the following medications: lorazepam, diazepam, haloperidol, quetiapine and olanzapine.
3. Define the role for benzodiazepines and antipsychotics in the management of agitation in a 77 year old man diagnosed with Alzheimer’s disease.
4. Cite three pharmacokinetic and pharmacodynamics parameters for lorazepam, diazepam, haloperidol, quetiapine and olanzapine in an 82 year old woman